The food supplement 7 Herbs Transit no longer contains SENNA, but a different herbal composition in accordance with the most recent European regulations. Unfortunately, it is no longer permitted to use a number of effective herbs in food supplements. We would like to draw your attention to the fact that the current formula has a different effect than the former composition. For example, the dosage of two tablets per day is combined with a longer intake period. There is no longer an instant effect, but the supplement will be effective after a longer intake period of several weeks.
